

Job Office.

BOOK, CARD AND JOB Printing Office, East Hill, Idaho City.

THE Proprietors beg leave to announce to the people of Idaho City and vicinity, that they have a varied and complete assortment of
PLAIN and ORNAMENTAL JOB AND CARD TYPES, which make their facilities for executing all kinds of Plain and Ornamental Printing unsurpassed by any office in the upper country. All orders for jobs will be executed with neatness and dispatch.

JOB WORK MUST BE PAID FOR ON DELIVERY

CITY NEWS.

THE attention of Tax payers is called to the notice of the Tax Collector.

THE DISTRICT COURT will adjourn about the middle of next week. Judge McBride will then proceed to Alturas county, and open Court at Rocky Bar.

FOR SALT LAKE.—Mr. Wm. McGorty of this place left last Tuesday for a visit eastward, stopping at a while at Gibson's Ferry, and proceeding thence to Salt Lake. He will be absent several weeks. May the dust lay low, and the winds blow cool on his pilgrimage.

WRIGHT'S GREAT LOTTERY was drawn last Monday. A large crowd collected at the Jenny Lind Theater to witness the performance. We observe several individuals sporting fine jewelry on the streets since the drawing. The prizes yet uncal-led for are at Dickinson & Kimmel's jewelry store. Mr. Wright has gone below for a new stock for another lottery.

CEMETERY.—The Masons and Odd Fellows are preparing to fence in a cemetery on the hill near the present cemetery, to be devoted to the burial of members of those fraternities. Title to the ground has been obtained, which will prevent it from being worked out for mining purposes. The matter is in the hands of an energetic committee who are authorized to complete the fence and decorations at once.

NOTICE.—Mrs. Duncan's Raffle which should have come off on the first Sunday in September is now postponed until she can make arrangements to change it into a lottery, in which lottery she will put several houses and lots, a large assortment of jewelry, of the best kind, together with three fine American horses. Mrs. Duncan informs those who have already purchased tickets in the raffle that the same may be returned as cash in the lottery.

WE FIND a pamphlet on our table entitled, "Idaho, A descriptive tour and Review of its Resources and Route" by C. Aubrey Angelo. It is published by Bancroft & Co., San Francisco, and contains fifty two pages. It furnishes a very fair report of the scenery along the road from Portland, and description of the mining camps in the Territory. It is a readable and instructive work. The author promises soon to enlarge it, and embellish it with some maps and engravings.

ACCIDENT.—As Messrs. Houston, Cassidy and Connelly were returning from their late trip from Big Camas Prairie on Thursday, their wagon overturned on a precipitous portion of the divide on the Boise City road, throwing Messrs Cassidy and Connelly out, and breaking the wagon in several places. Mr. Cassidy was injured considerably.
The horses were stopped in the canyon below, escaping without much damage. The accident occurred in the same spot on which Mr. Mix was hurt a few weeks ago.

NO CHURCHES.—The Church-going community, if any there be, are badly off at present in this place. With the exception of the Catholic Churches at several points in this county, there is no church of any denomination now open for religious services. The building originally erected for that purpose in Idaho city still stands, being occupied as a Court room, but no Minister of the Gospel has proclaimed "glad" or any other kind of tidings from its pulpit for several months. There is no Protestant church in the Boise Basin.

APPEALS.—Judge McBride of the District Court rendered a decision this week of some importance to parties interested in estates of deceased persons. In the matter of the application of Jno. S.
Gray for letters of administration on the estate of S. Pinkham, exception was taken to the jurisdiction of the District Court to entertain appeals from the Probate Court. It was held that the District Court has such jurisdiction. Exception was then made to the power of the District Court to examine and supervise the decisions of the Probate Court. Held that the District Court had such jurisdiction. In the case before the Court, the decision of the Probate Court was confirmed, granting letters to Joseph Luckett.

FAYORS.—Mr. John Clowrey has favored us with some choice liquors and cigars from his saloon—lately known as Luckett & Ragsdale's saloon.
The cigars were fragrant and of the best quality, and from the sudden disappearance of the liquors we presume they were not hard to take. Clowrey is determined to keep up the former reputation this saloon has enjoyed, and therefore keeps only the best of articles behind the bar.

Mr. James B. Brown of the Phoenix, to convince us that ale and porter are as palatable here as anywhere else favors us with some fine specimens.
Lovers of these articles should call and examine them, and they will be sure to go again.

BELLIGERENT.—Chinamen got into a row on Sunday night and spilled some blood. A lot of the Celestials in the wash-house near the corner of Wall and Main, quarrelling about something known only to themselves, commenced shooting each other. One Lum Gow having laid three of his associates out, by putting a ball through a head, an arm, and a leg, "put out" for some more peaceable country. The Chinamen say they will soon "catchee him."

A couple of Africans of American descent were brought up before Squire Burns on Monday for quarrelling about the payment of a pair of boots.
Caleb Laws and David Taylor were the illustrious candidates. Taylor was fined $20 for drawing a knife on Laws, and as his bank didn't cash any checks, he has taken up his summer residence in the castle on the bar.

THE MONTANA HOUSE has changed hands, having been purchased by Messrs Durein & Bro., formerly of the Empire Hotel, Placerville. The proprietors are skillful and successful landlords.
Advertisement next week.

LOOK TO YOUR PIPES.—As cold weather is coming on and fires growing comfortable, it will be well if every house holder in this place makes a thorough examination of his chimneys, pipes and flues. A little precaution now may prevent an unnecessary suffering hereafter.

Proceedings of the District Court.

FRIDAY, Sept. 1.—Patrick Bradley vs H. C.
Anderson and A. O. Bowen—replevin to recover possession of property taken by Sheriff; heard on demurrer; demurrer overruled.
Stephen Yonner vs The Great Consolidated Boise L. & S. M. Co., Default entered for want of an answer, and judgment for $523.50 and costs.

Andrew McDonald vs The Great Consolidated Boise L. & S. M. Co. Action for labor and services performed—default and judgment for $574 and costs.

John Hunter vs G. W. Miller, et al. Judgment by default—perpetual injunction granted from working under the house of Miller—C. B. Waite appointed referee to ascertain and report damages sustained by plaintiff.

J. S. Butler et al. vs G. Stonerod, Strother and Brown. Action to set aside judgment vs Garrison Gambrins Co. and to restrain Sheriff from selling property thereon—temporary restraining order granted.

J. F. Skanks vs Emily Skanks. Action for divorce on ground of desertion—decree granted by the Court.

SATURDAY, Sept. 2.—John Marston vs W. A.
Beaumont et al. Motion to dissolve injunction restraining parties from working mining claim near Last Chance Bar—motion denied by the Court.

The People vs Gustavus Omsdale. Sentenced by the Court to imprisonment in the territorial prison during the whole of his natural life—first six days of each year in solitary confinement, balance of the time at hard labor.

The People vs Ferd. Patterson. Defendant by counsel moved to be dismissed from custody, whereupon Court ordered an examination of the case be made before him to satisfy the Court whether it was proper to discharge the prisoner or to submit his case to another Grand Jury. After an examination, the Court ordered that the case be referred to the next Grand Jury, and refused to admit the prisoner to bail.

MONDAY, Sept. 4.—On motion of D. W. Douthitt, B. W. McGraw was admitted to practice in this Court as an attorney at law—on affidavit of admission in Supreme Court of California.
The People vs Jno. Williams. Defendant by his counsel moved to dismiss indictment on the ground that there were no Territorial Statutes for the punishment of crimes in existence at the time said offense was charged to have been committed—motion sustained by the Court, and prisoner remanded to await the action of a Grand Jury of U. S. District Court.

Wales et al. vs Galbraith. Cause continued on affidavit to October term.

Gay, Goldtrap et al. vs. Thatcher et al. Cause dismissed by plaintiffs at their own cost.

Agnew & Johnson vs Douglas and Ellis. Action to enforce mechanic's lien. Default taken against defendants and sundry additional liens filed—Referred to C. B. Waite to examine and report amount due to each claimant on his lien.

TUESDAY, Sept. 5.—In the matter of the estate of Summer Pinkham, deceased. Appeal from an order of Probate Court appointing Jno. Luckett administrator. Motion to dismiss appeal for want of jurisdiction—motion denied. Appeal dismissed, and the action and order of the Probate Court affirmed. Jno. S. Gray, appellant, adjudged to pay the costs.

to October term at defendant's cost.

Geo. Gillinwater vs Robt. Williams. Defendant moved for change of venue to Alturas Co.
Motion granted on payment of costs of this term.

Lewis vs Poudjae & Morey. Default of defendant entered and judgment according to prayer of complaint.

WEDNESDAY, Sept. 6.—Weaver & Bro. vs J. B.
Ingersoll. Heard on demurrer to the answer—demurrer overruled.

J. J. Russell et al. vs Hyde et al. Action to restrain deft. from dumping on certain ground—jury impaneled and trial commenced.

THURSDAY.—Same cause resumed. Case closed, argued and submitted to the jury—judgment for plaintiff.

Ford vs Lynch et al. Cause continued to October term at defendant's cost.
Hunter vs Miller et al. Judgment by agreement in favor of plaintiff for $100 and costs.

MAN ABOUT TOWN.

Now that the season for festivities again approaches, everybody is expecting that a series of parties commonly called "balls" but more exclusively denominated "soirees," may be very soon commenced. The Masonic Hall is in order, and is by far the nicest place ever fitted up in this town for dancing. Our pleasureseekers can now arrange matters themselves without being at the mercy of some hash-house keeper or other speculators. A number of citizens have suggested the names of Messrs. Edward Webb, J. L. Smith and A. P. Turner a committee of arrangements to prepare for the first one. No doubt they will attend to it promptly. The one heretofore talked of by the fraternity has been indefinitely posponed.

The change mentioned in the last World regarding the Sheriff's office, with Mr. Crutcher for Sheriff and Edmondson Under Sheriff, gives satisfaction. It has been the opinion among outsiders that the Sheriff's office was peculiarly beneficial to the incumbent, but such appears not to be the case. The resignation of Mr. A.
O. Bowen demonstrates that fact. Mr. John Gorman, the efficient Police Deputy, retains his position which is also eminently proper. With rigid and practical economy in all the little details of the office, we hope the present officers will be able to weather the gale and make port next August with a few dollars in their pockets.
They deserve it.

Mr. Robinson is running the Idaho Theatre successfully. The endeavors of the troupe to please meet with approbation, and the house is pretty well attended.

Mrs. Estelle Potter Macdonald took a benefit on Tue-day night which was not very largely attended.

"A friend has handed us the following for publication:—[Oregonian, 28th ult.]

"Don't believe it."
"And Patterson and his crew govern Idaho."—[Oregonian, 28th ult.]

"Malicious falsehood."
"Acting Governor S— is up at Rocky Bar drinking whisky and having the delirium tremens."—[Oregonian, 28th ult.]

"An infernal lie, which the Oregonian man would not have dared to publish till he had heard the Governor was dead."
"The civil government of Idaho has gone to the dogs."
—[Oregonian 28th ult.]

"A lie of the grossest invention."
"On the principal thoroughfares eastward, gangs of men collect to rob, steal and murder with impunity, there being no civil law to interfere with them."—[Oregonian 28th ult.]

"Base lie."
"Not a day passes in this part of the Territory without one or more men meeting a violent death."—[Oregonian 28th ult.]

"Vile and impious lie."
"No one ever hears of a conviction for crime, or punishment for an offense."—[Oregonian 28th ult.]

"Cowardly lie."
"It is a weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth!"
—[Oregonian 28th ult.]

"A silly and unnecessary lie."
"If Milton had lived now-a-days, he would have banished Satan into Idaho in preference to the infernal regions."—[Oregonian 28th ult.]

A slanderous lie upon Mr. Milton, who is also dead.
The subscriber holds himself personally responsible to the proper authorities for the above statements.

Tycoon's harrangues in the Statesman are after the same stereotyped usual. He says "common sense" is "foreign" to my pen. That depends altogether upon how the reader was "brought up." The "sense" of Tyke's articles are very "common" indeed. So common-place as to be entirely void of interest to this community. Now Tyke you are confidently advised to "dry up" and not make a wet-foot scribbler of yourself. I don't want you for breakfast. Prefer "am and hegas."

A fight occurred on Monday evening last at a saloon in town between Jas. Connelly, Mr. Marley's trainer, and Patsy Foy, in which Mr. Foy got worsted. Such a life, we cannot tell when we start into a rough and tumultuous fight, what kind of metal we are going to contend with.
